Franchise History

Someone once said, "There is a lot more comes out of the South than just cotton", and for southern Albertans and Canadians alike, truer words were never spoken. On May 21, 1980, the Atlanta Flames became the Calgary Flames; they would no longer play in The Omni (capacity 15,141); they would play in the Stampede Corral (capacity 7,242). They would no longer take to the ice displaying a fiery "A" on their jerseys, but rather thrill the fans with an explosive-looking "C".

The Flames and Calgary's first ever NHL game in the Corral was against Quebec Nordiques, Oct. 9, 1980, and ended in a 5-5 tie. The last game was a 6-5 playoff win over Edmonton, April 18, 1983. In three seasons in the Corral the Flames played a total of 146 games (league, playoff and exhibition), including that thrilling 3-2 win over the Soviet National Team, Jan. 2, 1983. The Flames lost only 28 regular season and 4 playoff games in the Corral.

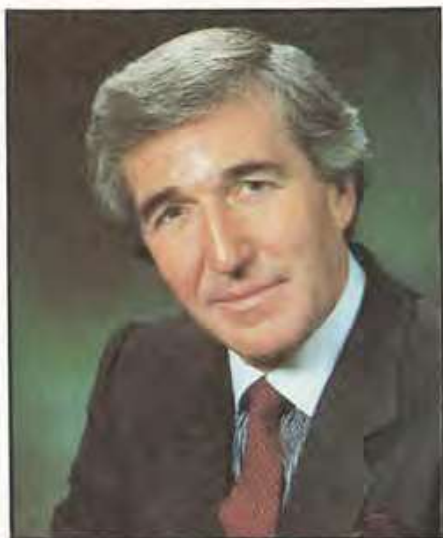

The Flames are in their sixth season of NHL play in Calgary and third in the Olympic Saddledome. The Flames and their fans are playing and watching NHL hockey from the best entertainment facility in all of North America. The Olympic Saddledome, adjacent to the Corral, seats 16,762 for hockey. This state-of-the-art facility opened in fine fashion on Saturday, Oct. 15, 1983 when the Edmonton Oilers defeated the Flames 5-4.

The history of the Flames' franchise unfolded when a group of Georgia businessmen, headed by Tom Cousins, based on solid marketing studies, the existence of an NBA basketball club, and a beautiful new building, applied for and were officially granted an NHL franchise June 6, 1972. The first game at The Omni matched the Flames against the Buffalo Sabres, and after 60 minutes, the Flames had earned their first NHL point: Atlanta 1, Buffalo 1. Ironically, the first game in Calgary also ended in a tie.

Not unlike the means by which the Flaming "C" came to represent the Calgary franchise, the name "Flames" was arrived at also by a contest in Atlanta that attracted some 10,000 entries, with judges from all phases of the media responsible for choosing the most representative nickname. Historically, General Sherman captured the city of Atlanta during the Civil War and burned the city down. The flames that engulfed the entire city were extinguished, and the rebirth of the Georgia capital began.

On May 21, 1980 Nelson Skalbania announced that he and a group of Calgary businessmen had purchased the Atlanta franchise and would move the team to Calgary. Sixteen months later Skalbania sold his interest in the franchise, and ownership of the southern Alberta franchise consists strictly of six Calgary businessmen. (See pages 4 & 5).

Cliff Fletcher

Corral and Olympic Saddledome in Calgary.

Making trades and scouting players, although reflecting the highest profile, are only some of the many responsibilities a President-General Manager of a NHL team confronts daily. Hockey has become a multi-million dollar business, and a year-round operation.

Hockey is Fletcher's life. It began with the Junior Canadiens in the Montreal Canadiens' system, where he was a scout for 10 years under the guidance of Sam Pollock. NHL expansion opened new avenues for Fletcher, and in 1967 he became Eastern Canada scout for the St. Louis Blues, and then two years later the Club's assistant general manager.

The Blues were in the Stanley Cup finals for three consecutive years (1968, 1969, 1970) while he was in St. Louis. When the second NHL expansion came in '72, Fletcher was Atlanta's first and only choice for GM.

In 16 years with the Blues and Flames, Fletcher's teams have missed the playoffs only once, and he has a winning percentage of .514 (443-414-179) as the Flames' head man.

One of the highlights of Fletcher's career came in 1981 when he was chosen G.M. for Team Canada in the Canada Cup Tournament. He has served and chaired many NHL committees.

The Fletchers — Cliff, wife "Boots", son Chuck (a freshman at Harvard) and daughter Kristy — reside in Mount Royal, Calgary.

The summer of '85 was a busy one for Flames' President and General Manager Cliff Fletcher. His draft choices, trades and free agent signings the past few years and during the past several months reflect his determination to make the Flames a championship team.

Fletcher has assembled what has the ingredients of becoming the fastest, strongest, youngest and best team in the Flames' 13-year history.

The 50-year-old native of Montreal has been the only GM the Flames have had. He started in Atlanta in February '72 and in the summer of '80 moved with the franchise to Calgary.

Cliff has introduced the NHL to two cities and three arenas — The Omni in Atlanta and the Stampede

Assistant GM

Al MacNeil

Al MacNeil, in his fourth season as the Flames' Assistant GM and seventh with the club, is recognized for his discerning analysis of hockey talent, on and off the ice. He is responsible for all professional scouting, monitoring the progress of all players under contract to or drafted by the Flames. His job calls for a lot of travelling.

But that is nothing new for him. This is Al's 24th season in professional hockey and his file is filled with tremendous accomplishments.

He played eight seasons in the NHL as a rugged defenseman with Toronto, Montreal, Chicago, Pittsburgh and the New York Rangers before turning to the coaching ranks in 1968 with the Canadiens' farm team in the Central League, Houston Apollos. He moved into the NHL coaching ranks in 1970 and piloted the Canadiens to a Stanley Cup title that year. He also was GM-Coach of the Nova Scotia Voyageurs in the American League for six seasons, leading the Vees to four first place finishes and three Calder Cup titles and was an assistant coach for Team Canada in both the 1976 and 1981 Canada Cup Tournaments.

MacNeil joined the Flame family in 1979 as head coach, a position he held for three years, including the 1980-81 season in Calgary when the Flames enjoyed the finest moments in their history advancing to the Stanley Cup semifinals.

His four-year NHL coaching record consisted of 295 league games (134-108-53) and a .544 winning percentage.

On September 2, 1982, he officially left coaching to become Cliff Fletcher's first lieutenant.

A Maritimer, Al, his wife Norma and children Allison and Allister live in Calgary, but spend part of their summer in Big Pond, Nova Scotia.

Head Coach

Bob Johnson

The "youngest" Flame is head coach Bob Johnson.

He is blessed with a tremendously high level of enthusiasm and is a tireless worker. "Badger Bob" has the earned reputation of being as crafty as a fox. His hard work, positive thinking and enthusiasm since he joined the Flames in May '82, are unsurpassed.

He encountered a big change from the head coaching spot at the U. of Wisconsin to the NHL. His first season, 1982-83, was a learning experience. The results became evident in the '84 playoffs against the Oilers. He was only 27 minutes away from upsetting the Stanley Cup champions. Last season, the Flames set several team records in overall points, overall finish in NHL standings, most goals for at home and on the road. They also tied team records for most wins in a season, and fewest losses.

He had a high rate of success with the Wisconsin Badgers, who captured the NCAA championship three times in Johnson's 15-year reign during which the club won 192 more games than it lost. In 1977 he was NCAA Coach-of-the-Year. His three-year winning record with the Flames is 107-93-40 for a .529 percentage.

There has never been a more positive person in the NHL. Badger's approach to the game has rubbed off on the players and the Flames have never had a better attitude. As one veteran NHL observer remarked, "In all my years around the game I have never seen a coach project such a positive posture outwardly after a loss by his team."

Although he played some minor professional baseball, hockey is Johnson's number one love. He spends much of the off-season conducting hockey schools in the United States. He coached Team USA to a second place finish in Canada Cup '84; served as an assistant coach in the 1981 Canada Cup tournament; and he also has coached the U.S. National team on four other occasions and the U.S. Olympic team once. His career began in '56 at Warroad, MN high school; then college at Colorado in '63 and three years later became Wisconsin's first hockey coach.

The Johnson's are a hockey family. Bob's wife, Martha, follows the Flames religiously. One son, Mark, plays for St. Louis Blues, while another, Peter, is an assistant coach at Bowling Green University.

Coaches

Bob Murdoch

One of the reasons for the development of the young Flames' players the past few seasons has been the work of assistant coach Bob Murdoch. After 12 seasons in the NHL, Murdoch hung up his skates after the '82-83 season to become a full-time assistant under head coach Bob Johnson.

A dedicated player, Murdoch played 757 regular-season games in the NHL plus 69 playoff encounters. He played on a Stanley Cup winner with Montreal in 1970-71 (he was a rookie) and again in 1972-73. Later in his career Murdoch toiled in Los Angeles, Atlanta and Calgary. In his 12 year NHL career and three seasons as an assistant coach, he has been in the Stanley Cup playoffs every year.

Basically a defensive defenseman, Murdoch at one time held all of the L.A. Kings' offensive career scoring records by a defenseman. However, they were all broken in 1982-83 by Larry Murphy, now with Washington. A sign of the changing ways in the NHL is that it took Murdoch six seasons in L.A. to amass 171 points (41 goals and 130 assists). After three campaigns Murphy had 52 goals and 152 assists for 204 points.

Bob is a full-time Calgary resident.

Pierre Page

Pierre is back in Calgary as an assistant coach with the Flames after three seasons as Coach-GM of the Flames' No. One farm team in Denver (CHL) for two seasons and last year in Moncton (AHL).

"The top priority for coaches in the minor leagues is to develop players for the NHL team; it was gratifying for me to see players who did well with us get the opportunity to play in the NHL," stated Page.

This will be Page's third year in Calgary and sixth with the Flames. He was Al MacNeil's assistant coach in Calgary for the Flames' first two seasons, 1980-81 and '81-82.

A native of Lachute, Quebec, Page started his coaching career at Dalhousie U. in Halifax where he transformed the Tigers into Canada's No. 2 college team in 1978-79, winning the Maritime conference championship for the first time in 60 years. Page also aided the AHL Nova Scotia Voyageurs.

He worked with the Canadian Olympic team '80 and Team Canada in the '81 Canada Cup Tournament.

Pierre, and his wife Donna, spent the off-season in Halifax and Colorado, but they are now full-time Calgarians.

Coaches

Terry Crisp

During the NHL's 1985 Entry Draft in Toronto Terry Crisp became the new coach and general manager of the Moncton Golden Flames, Calgary's No. One farm team.

Flames' President and General Manager Cliff Fletcher signed the 42-year-old Crisp to a multi-year contract.

"I've known Terry a long time," said Fletcher, "I knew him when he played for me in St. Louis, and have followed his progress very carefully since he entered the coaching ranks. He is a winner who demonstrates all the qualities I like to see in a person, particularly as a head coach."

Crisp started his professional career in 1963-64 with Minneapolis of the then Central Hockey League. He graduated to the NHL's Boston Bruins in 1965. Over a three season span, 1967-70, as a member of the expansion St. Louis Blues, Crisp participated in three consecutive Stanley Cup finals.

He played 11 seasons in the NHL. His finest moments came as a Philadelphia Flyer when they became the first expansion club to win the Stanley Cup in 1974 and 1975.

In six seasons as coach of Sault Ste. Marie Greyhounds (OHL) they won three divisional and league titles, had a 33-0 home record last season, and Crisp was Coach-of-the-year twice.

Glenn Hall

The Flames added a new position mid-way through the 1983-84 season and it produced immediate results. The hiring of Hall-of-Famer Glenn Hall as goaltending consultant has paid dividends.

Coach Bob Johnson is a supporter of Hall. "I was never a goaltender and neither was Bob Murdoch or Pierre Page. Glenn can relate with the goalies much better than we can. He has made a solid contribution to the team.

"Glenn has assisted the Flames' goalies, pointing out errors they were making as well as giving them a reading on shooters around the league and how to play them."

The Edmonton native was a bonafide superstar during his NHL playing days with Detroit, Chicago and St. Louis, winning the Vezina Trophy and gaining acclaim as one of the NHL's all-time great goalkeepers.

Mr. Goalie, a title he earned with his great goaltending, recorded several league and playoff records in his 19-year NHL career. He played in 906 games from 1952-53 through 1970-71. His record of 502 consecutive games (1955-56 through first 12 games of 1962-63) is one that may never be broken!

He is a member of the NHL and Alberta Sports Hall-of-Fame. Glenn makes his home just outside of Edmonton.

Trainers

Jim Murray

Jim (Bearcat) Murray is a vital part of Calgary's hockey history. He is in his sixth season as the Flames' trainer.

'Bear's' ability to react instantly to on-ice injuries is well documented. Many times he has reached an injured Flame player before play has stopped.

A native of nearby Okotoks, 'Bearcat' is versed in Calgary's hockey past. He played prior to serving as trainer for Scotty Munro's junior Centennials team in the Western Hockey League and for the Cowboys in the WHA.

'Bearcat', his wife Shirley and sons Allan and Danny, make their home in Calgary.

Bobby Stewart

Bobby Stewart, the Flames' equipment manager, is in his 13th season with the club. Only President-GM Cliff Fletcher has been a Flame longer.

Bobby, who has been around hockey teams since he was growing up as a 15-year-old in Montreal, is responsible for the sticks, skates, pads, helmets, sweaters, pants and all the equipment needs of the players and coaching staff. It's a never-ending job, but one he revels in.

He joined the Flames in Atlanta in '73 and moved with the club to Calgary in July 1980.

He and his wife, Sherri, and son Josh, make their home in Calgary.

Paul Baxter played in 70 of the Flames 80 regular-season games during the 1984-85 season, despite being bothered by a knee injury for most of the season. It was Baxter's second season with the Flames after signing as a free agent from Pittsburgh.

A steady defenseman Baxter reduced his penalty minute total to 126 last season — a career low for him. A popular player with his teammates, Baxter scored five goals in '84-85. His fourth goal of the season, Feb. 6 in Hartford, proved to be the game-winner as the Flames defeated the Whalers 7-4.

It was however, a disappointment for Baxter when the Flames were eliminated from the playoffs by his hometown team, Winnipeg Jets.

The 30-year-old Baxter is the senior member of the Flames defense unit. He is entering his 12th season of professional hockey, which started in 1974-75 with the Cleveland Crusaders of the now-defunct World Hockey Association.

Paul, his wife Julie and their three children, spent the off-season in Calgary where Paul was active at various Christian hockey schools. He also competed with the Flames community slo-pitch team, which compiled a perfect 8-0 record in games in Alberta over July and August.

Beers

Although he missed hitting the 30-goal plateau in 1984-85, Eddy Beers finished the season as the Flames' third highest goalscorer, scoring 28 times. After only two-and-a-half seasons in the National Hockey League, Beers has established himself as one of the league's competent scorers. In only 193 career games, Beers has scored 76 goals including a career-high 36 goals during the 1983-84 season.

Beers was signed by Flames' General Manager Cliff Fletcher out of the University of Denver. In 81 collegiate games, Beers scored 74 goals, including 50 goals in 42 games in 1981-82.

Beers led the Flames in powerplay goals with 13 last season. He scored 15 of his goals in the Saddledome and 13 on the road.

Beers scored a pair of "hat tricks" — Oct. 17 at Vancouver and Mar. 7 vs. the New York Rangers. Already Beers has registered five 3-goal games with the Flames, placing him in a tie for third place on the club's all-time "hat trick" list with Eric Vail. A scorer who's blazing hot when he's on, Beers scored 10 goals in 11 games (Nov. 21-Dec. 15, 1984).

Eddy, who was married during the past season, divided time during the off-season between Calgary and his native Merritt, B.C.

There were many options available to Perry Berezan last March, 1985. The young centreman from Edmonton had completed his second year at the University of North Dakota and was considering whether to continue his studies, sign with the Canadian Olympic hockey team or turn professional with the Flames. He chose the latter and then made an impressive rookie debut.

After signing with the Flames on Mar. 13/85 in Toronto, Berezan worked out with the team for a week. He made his NHL debut in the Olympic Saddledome March 20. He scored the final goal of the game, as the Flames defeated Toronto 7-4.

He played in nine regular-season games and contributed 3 goals and 2 assists. He counted three goals in his first four professional games. His final goal of the season was a game-winner, the Flames defeated the L.A. Kings 4-2.

Berezan played his junior hockey with the Tier II St. Albert Saints before electing to go south to Minnesota where he had two outstanding seasons at UND.

Berezan, who is single, spent the summer in Edmonton.

Bourgeois

From the day he left the Canadian College Champion University of Moncton Blue Eagles and signed professionally with the Flames, Charlie Bourgeois' career has been one of up-and-down from the NHL to the minors.

In 1984-85 the personable defenseman from Moncton, N.B. remained on the Flames roster for the entire season. It was the first season in his four-year professional career that he did not spend any time in the minors. Bourgeois played in 47 games, scoring two goals and 10 assists. He also accumulated 134 penalty minutes, second highest on the club.

A role player who must always be ready when called upon, Bourgeois played in 18 of the club's first 40 regular-season games, and in 29 of the final 40 games. An example of his constantly being prepared happened on Dec. 5/84, when after working out all day at a New York gym, he stepped right into the lineup that night when Paul Reinhart went down with an injury in the pre-game warm up.

This is Bourgeois' fifth pro season.

Bourgeois, a bachelor, spent the entire summer in Moncton.

It's a role most players don't exactly cherish, but it's one that Steve Bozek plays very well. Coming off the bench and being a helpful member of a team is difficult at best for anyone. Bozek performs this task as well as anyone.

Bozek can play all three forward positions and did just that during the course of the '84-85 season. Says Flames' coach Bob Johnson of Bozek's role, "He's one of the few players in the NHL who can come in cold and do a job."

As a spot player last season, Bozek played in 54 games and contributed 35 points, including 13 goals.

He missed the first 14 games of the regular season when he tore ligaments in his hand during the '84 Flames training camp. He returned to the lineup on Nov. 10/84 vs. Montreal. In the following five games, Bozek put together his longest point-streak, scoring five points in five games.

The Flames success rate in free agent signings continued in 1984-85 when left-winger Gino Cavallini arrived in Hartford on Jan. 15/85 to make his NHL debut.

After scoring the winning goal for Bowling Green in the fourth overtime of the 1984 NCAA hockey championship, Cavallini elected to sign as a free agent with the Flames.

The Toronto native started the season with Moncton in the American Hockey League where he was enjoying an outstanding season. He was close to a point-a-game pace prior to his call-up to the NHL. In 51 AHL games, the sturdy 6-1, 215 lb. winger scored 29 goals and added 19 assists.

Cavallini registered an assist in his first NHL game at Hartford and was awarded the game's third star. The Flames' win that night started the team off to a six-game undefeated streak. Five games later Cavallini scored his first NHL goal in the second period on Jan. 26/85 vs. Vancouver at the Saddledome. His NHL record in 27 games, was six goals and 10 assists.

D'Amour

The Flames first season with an American Hockey League farm team in Moncton saw the club just miss making the playoffs. However, goaltender Marc D'Amour was one of many pleasant surprises.

After two seasons of being the back-up goaltender with the Flames farm team in Denver (CHL), D'Armour wasn't certain what 1984-85 would bring. After splitting the duties with Mike Vernon early in the campaign, he emerged as the number one goaltender with Moncton. D'Amour's rise to one of the top prospects in the game is even more spectacular knowing he started the '84-85 season in Salt Lake City of the International Hockey League.

In 37 games at Moncton, D'Amour compiled a 3.36 goals-against-average. He will battle two others for the back-up role vacated by the Don Edwards trade to Toronto.

The 24-year-old is hoping to become another Cinderella story similar to Lemelin. Like Lemelin, D'Amour was a free agent, signing with the Flames in 1982 after playing three seasons of junior hockey with Sault Ste. Marie in the Ontario Hockey League.

Eaves

If Mike Eaves had one wish it would be that he play a full NHL season injury-free.

Injuries have plagued the diligent-working centreman since he jumped straight out of the University of Wisconsin to the Minnesota North Stars. But even while playing hurt because of various injuries, Eaves displays the determination that coach Bob Johnson admires.

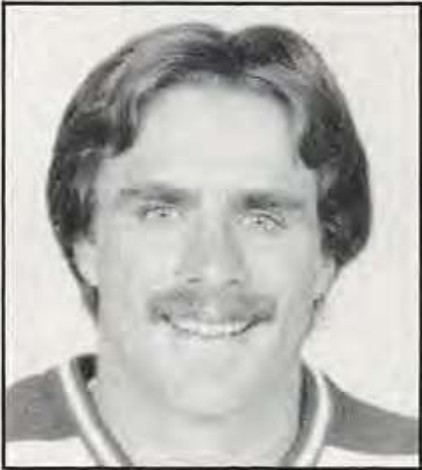

In 1984-85 Eaves missed 24 games, but was able to match his 14-goal output of the previous season. He missed 14 of those games due to a dislocated shoulder. When he returned to the Flames lineup on Dec. 1/84, he went on a tear, scoring 20 points (8 goals — 12 assists) in 16 games. Unfortunately a concussion knocked him out of the lineup for eight games, and bruised ribs kept him out an additional three games. Two of his 14 goals came while the Flames were shorthanded.

It was a rib injury that kept him out of last spring's playoffs against the Winnipeg Jets. The previous spring he was one of the top Flames in their memorable seven-game series against Edmonton.

Mike, his wife Beth and children Benjamin and Patrick, spent the summer in Minnesota.

Hunter

A two-goal game late in the 1983-84 season by Tim Hunter seemed to be the spark that the Calgary native needed. Last year he contributed 11 goals and 11 assists to the Flames attack, a pro career high for him in both categories.

It also helped that Hunter got to play in 71 games and at a regular right wing position. Hunter, who stands 6-2 and weighs 202 lbs. created havoc around the opposition net.

Eight of his 11 goals last season came at home in the Saddledome to the pleasure of his local fans, some who have been following his career since his pee-wee days in the Renfrew area. His biggest offensive night was on March 30, 1984 when he scored 2 goals and assisted on another against Minnesota at the Saddledome.

Noted for his aggressive play, Hunter led the team in penalty minutes with 259.

Hunter, who signed a new contract with the Flames during the off-season, is in his 6th season in the Flames organization. He spent parts of three seasons in the minors before spending the last two in Calgary.

Tim, and his wife Kim, spent much of the summer in Seattle where he played his junior hockey.

Konroyd

When one thinks of Steve Konroyd it is usually his defensive play that comes quickly to mind. But last season, the stellar defenseman had his best season offensively since arriving in the NHL in 1981-82. His 1984-85 scoring statistics were three goals and 23 assists for 26 points.

Konroyd was also the Flames second highest scorer in the playoffs collecting a goal and four assists in the four-game series with Winnipeg.

However, last season saw Konroyd suffer his most serious hockey injury of his four-year career when he was knocked out of the Flames lineup for 15 games December 30 at Chicago. He crashed into an open gate at the players' bench and suffered a dislocated elbow. The injuries (he also sat out two games with back spasms) kept Konroyd out of 17 games.

At the conclusion of the Flames '84-85 season Steve, along with fellow defenseman, Jamie Macoun, joined Team Canada for the World Hockey Championships in Prague, Czechoslovakia. Canada upset the highly favored Soviet Union and captured the silver medal behind the host country, Czechoslovakia.

Kosti

When Glenn Hall played in the NHL he was an exceptional goalkeeper and earned the nickname of Mr. Goalie. Now he feels that the newest goaltender to the Flame organization, Rick Kosti, "has all the tools to be an exceptional NHL netminder."

That's lavish praise for a 22-year-old who for the last two seasons starred with the University of Minnesota-Duluth, and there he was scouted by Hall — the Flames' goalie consultant.

On Hall's advice the Flames signed the free agent from Kincaid, Saskatchewan on May 29 and a day later traded Don Edwards to Toronto.

Kosti had an outstanding two years at Minnesota-Duluth where he majored in physical education, but excelled at keeping the puck out of the net in the tough WCHA Conference. After being Conference rookie-of-the-year and second team all-star in 1983-84, Kosti followed it up last season by gaining WCHA first team all-star status as well as being selected All-American first team netminder.

In just two seasons, Kosti set a pair of Minnesota-Duluth lifetime records for goal-tenders by winning 60 games and compiling a 3.13 goals against average. He helped lead Minnesota-Duluth to the NCAA hockey championship round.

Kromm

One reason the Flames got off to such a strong start last season was the play of the 'Dice Line'. Leftwinger Richard Kromm was a valuable member of that young unit along with rookie Carey Wilson and sophomore Colin Patterson.

Injuries to Patterson forced the line to be broken up shortly after the first quarter mark of the season, but their early accomplishments helped the Flames attain their record point season.

Kromm jumped out of the blocks fast, scoring 27 seconds into the Flames first game. He went on to score 10 goals and eight assists in his first 20 games.

A solid checker Kromm had a +19 rating in 1984-85.

Kromm comes by his hockey savvy naturally. His father, Bobby, was a standout amateur player in this country and later coached the Winnipeg Jets in the old World Hockey Association. Later he was bench boss for the Detroit Red Wings where he was selected Coach-of-the-Year in 1977-78.

Richard also has many of those leadership tendencies and was captain of the Portland team which captured the Memorial Cup in 1983.

Lemelin

It would be tough for Reggie Lemelin to enjoy another year as the one he enjoyed in 1984-85. Not only did he help backstop Team Canada to a 1984 Canada Cup championship, but he also enjoyed his best NHL season ever.

Once he got to the Flame camp Lemelin played in 56 games. He responded with his best goals against average 3.46. His 30 wins were third best in the NHL, while his save percentage of .889 ranked fourth.

Lemelin notched his first shutout in four years March 3, 1985 when he blanked L.A. for a 7-0 win. He also stopped a penalty shot against Bengt Lundholm at Winnipeg.

Reggie has always played outstanding games in the Boston Garden, but until Jan. 17 of last season he had not been able to beat the Bruins. He did that with a strong 25-save performance.

After capturing the city sports media Athlete of the Year honor in 1984, Lemelin was runner-up in 1985.

Reggie, his wife Rona, daughter Stephanie and son Brian, spend their summers in Cherry Hill, N.J.

Loob

At the beginning of the '84-85 season, much of the attention was being garnered by Hakan Loob's teammates. But silently, "Hawk" was putting together one of the most consistent seasons on the Flames squad. After turning in a superb rookie campaign, Loob came back to finish tied for the club lead in goal scoring, and the club's second highest pointgetter with 72 points.

Loob, a native of Sweden, ended the campaign with 37 goals. Loob's slow start in 1984-85 may have been attributed to the fact that he played with Team Sweden in the Canada Cup Tournament and was, in fact, one of its leading performers in the highly emotional event.

Loob scored eight goals on the powerplay and one while playing shorthanded. Five of his tallies were game winners and he also assisted on another six game winning markers. His 224 shots on goal were the second highest on the Flames.

Hakan, his wife Marie and son Hendrik, spent the off-season in their native Sweden.

MacInnis

February '85 was a memorable month for defenseman Al MacInnis. On Feb. 12, MacInnis made his first appearance in an NHL All-Star game. However, Feb. 27 will not be remembered very fondly.

It was on that evening that a knee injury put a damper on the outstanding season the young defenseman was enjoying.

The sprained knee kept the hard shooting MacInnis on the sidelines for 13 games, but he still managed to score 66 points. He excelled on the special teams with 33 assists coming on the powerplay where he made the most of his blistering shot, one that many have called the hardest in the NHL. He also led the Flames in shots on goal with 259.

Early in the season MacInnis led NHL defensemen in scoring and was selected to play in the league All-Star Game at the Saddledome.

MacInnis had an excellent junior career with Kitchener of the Ontario Hockey League where in 1982-83 he tied Bobby Orr's league record for goals by a defenseman with 38.

Al, who is single, spent much of the summer in Calgary.

Macoun

The robust, aggressive style of Jamie Macoun has excited Flame fans since he arrived in Calgary and the NHL in January of 1983. Last season he showed why he was selected to the 1983-84 NHL All-Rookie team when he finished as the Flames top plus player with a + 45 rating.

In 1984-85 he matched his first season's goal total of nine, including two game winners. He also assisted on five game winning goals.

Macoun suffered a fractured cheekbone on December 26 at the Saddledome when struck from behind by Edmonton's Mark Messier. That injury kept him on the sidelines for six games, while Messier was suspended for 10 games.

At the end of the Flames' season, Macoun and fellow Calgary defenseman Steve Konroyd joined Team Canada and helped them to a second place silver medal finish at the World Hockey Championships.

Having never played a game in the minors, Macoun joined the Flames as a free agent after dropping out of Ohio State University when he was ineligible for college hockey under NCAA rules.

Jamie, who is single, divided his summer between Calgary and Toronto.

Ever since he enjoyed his greatest NHL season, scoring 66 goals for the Flames in 1982-83, Lanny McDonald has been hampered by injuries.

Injuries kept Lanny out of 37 games last season and for the first time in his brilliant 12-season career he missed the 20-goal plateau, ending with 19 in 43 games.

The gunner from Hanna, missed the first three games of the regular season with a mysterious stomach muscle injury. He re-injured himself and did not get back into action until Dec. 1, the 24th game of the season.

Lanny was just returning to form and was the most productive Flame with 15 points in 10 games before being knocked out of the lineup with a knee injury on March 9. The injury kept McDonald out of the balance of the regular-season.

McDonald has scored 437 career goals and is in 17th place on the NHL's all-time goals scoring list. That, alone, should assure Lanny a spot in the Hockey Hall of Fame.

One of hockey's greatest ambassadors, Lanny, his wife Ardell, and children Andra, Leah and Barrett, spent the summer in Calgary, Medicine Hat and Hanna.

Otto

Joel Otto made his professional debut on Nov. 23, 1985 in a game against the St. Louis Blues. He was recalled from Moncton on Feb. 27, and along with Gino Cavallini and Tim Hunter sparked a 3-1 win over NY Islanders. He collected his first goal Mar. 3 against L.A.

Joel Otto's performance last season in Moncton as a rookie in the American Hockey League and his performance with the Flames has left club officials with the impression they may have found a diamond-in-the-rough in the 6-4 centreman.

The Flames scouted and signed the native of St. Cloud, Minnesota, at Bemidji State.

Bemidji State is a NCAA Division II school, and the Flames were impressed with Otto's 1983-84 season when he scored 32 goals and 75 points in 31 games. Otto was also one of the finalists for the Hobey Baker Award in 1984.

With Moncton, Otto scored 63 points in 56 games.

He scored 12 points in 17 games with the Flames after the call-up from Moncton and scored two goals in the three playoff games.

Patterson

Until he was felled by knee and shoulder injuries Colin Patterson appeared to be on his way to a 35-40 goal season in 1984-85.

He scored 21 of his 22 goals during the first half of the season, playing in all 40 games. Then, injuries hit (torn cartilage, strained ligaments) and he dressed for only 17 matches in the second half.

Patterson, best noted for his strong checking, was the Flames most accurate shooter, scoring at a 21.2% clip. He finished the season at +20.

Before going down with a knee injury at Boston on Jan. 17, Patterson contributed five two-goal games. Patterson started strong as well, scoring 24 points in his first 17 games.

The big rightwinger is another Flame free agent signing after playing in the U.S. college ranks at Clarkson. He scored better than 20 goals in three consecutive years.

Colin was also an outstanding lacrosse player in and around his native Toronto.

Colin, who is single, spent some of the summer in Potsdam, N.Y. where he worked on completing his degree in business at Clarkson.

Peplinski

The leadership and durability of Jim Peplinski were again demonstrated in 1984-85 when "Pepper" was named as a co-captain by coach Bob Johnson. He was the only Flame to play in all 80 games.

Peplinski made contributions both on and off the ice. On the ice, his 16 goals were the second highest of his career. One goal came on a penalty shot Oct. 13 when he beat Quebec's Mario Gosselin in a game at the Saddledome. His biggest night offensively came two weeks later in Toronto when he clicked for four assists in another Flame win. He assisted on eight game winning markers. He started fast collecting 18 points in his first 20 games.

Of-the-ice 'Pepper' was very active in charity work. He was named the Charlie Conacher Memorial Award Winner the previous year. The award is in recognition of his outstanding work for those less fortunate.

In the dressing room, Peplinski is a vocal leader and his pranks on teammates are well-known. Peplinski has played all three forward positions.

Jim, and his wife Kathy, spent the summer in Calgary.

Quinn

Former NHL star player and coach Red Kelly has a theory that generally a young player doesn't start to blossom until their third season.

There are, of course, exceptions, but the Flames are hopeful that year three for Dan Quinn will be a big one for the club's 1983 number one draft pick.

After collecting 52 points in 54 games as a rookie Quinn notched 20 goals and 58 points last season. The young centreman does have potential after hitting for 147 points in his final year of Junior hockey.

Three of Quinn's 20 goals in 1984-85 were game winners. He also worked on the power-play where he contributed seven goals and 12 assists. His hottest streak of the season was Feb. 16 to Mar. 7 when he collected 19 points in 10 games, including a five point game vs. NY Rangers.

Dan, who is single, called Calgary home through most of the summer.

Reinhart

Recovered from his previous back problems, Paul Reinhart reached all-star status in 1984-85 when he was selected to play in the annual NHL all-star game.

The all-star assignment came after a strong first half when he collected 44 of his 69 points. He was again the Flames' top scoring defenseman. Reinhart scored points in 15 of the club's first 19 games, scoring 11 goals and 13 assists. Reinhart's 23 goals established a new Flame record for goals in a season by a defenseman.

Reinhart was a key man on the Flames powerplay scoring 12 goals and 24 assists.

'Rhino' scored five game winning goals last season, including an overtime tally against Detroit.

Playoffs always seem to bring out the best in the Flames stellar blueliner, who also takes a turn from time-to-time at centre. In just six seasons, he is the Flames all-time leading playoff scorer with 14 goals and 30 assists.

Paul played in 75 games in 1984-85 giving further testimony that his ailing back didn't give him any serious problems. The injury sidelined him for 53 games the year before.

Paul, who is single, spent a large portion of the summer in Calgary.

Injuries have always been a part of Doug Risebrough in his 11-year career in the NHL, but never anything like last season.

The gritty centreman has played with numerous ailments over the years, but a recurring groin injury kept him out of three-quarters of last season.

When he finally was able to get in the Flame line-up on Feb. 23, Risebrough did his best to make up for lost time as he scored 12 points in 15 games. He scored seven goals, four of which were game winners.

It was the most frustrating year of Risebrough's career and came after a career high 23-goal season in 1983-84 campaign when he missed only three games.

Risebrough is hopeful that a summer of rest will be just the tonic his injury needs to permit him to continue a career that has seen him play on four Stanley Cup winners with Montreal.

Doug is one of the Flames three-man co-captains with Lanny McDonald and Jim Peplinski.

An ardent student of the game, Risebrough spent some of his time on the sidelines last season spotting for coaches Bob Johnson and Bob Murdoch.

Doug, his wife Marilyn and children summered in Calgary.

Sheehy

Following a year and a half in the minors, Neil Sheehy made the jump to the Flames late last season.

Sheehy, a Flame free agent signing out of Harvard, actually got his first look with the Flames in the final game of the 1983-84 campaign. He scored a goal in that initial game after being called up from Colorado of the Central League. He remained with the Flames throughout their playoff run but then found himself back in the minors in Moncton early in the 1984-85 campaign.

However, a strong showing in Moncton got the hard hitting defender back in Calgary in time to play 31 games over the second half of the season. He was recalled at Christmas time, and played his first game on Dec. 26 against the Edmonton Oilers.

In addition to playing hockey at Harvard, Sheehy was also a member of the school's boxing team, fighting in the heavyweight category.

Neil, who is single, spent most of the summer at his Minnesota home.

When he played junior hockey here in Calgary, Mike Vernon was the darling of the Calgary hockey fans with his outstanding play in the nets. Now the 22-year-old hopes to do the same with the Flames.

Following his dazzling career with the Wranglers when he was selected Western Hockey League most valuable player and an all-star twice, Vernon turned pro with the Flames organization. In 1983-84 he had a sparkling year with the team's development team in Denver where he compiled a 3.35 goals against average and was one of the leading netminders in the Central League.

Last season the Flames farm team went to Moncton in the American Hockey League and the veteran shooters in that league gave Vernon problems at times with the young Golden Flames. He still however was able to compile a 3.96 goals against average.

Mike was the Flames third round draft pick in 1981. During his three years with the Wranglers, Vernon registered seven shut-outs. He also was added by the Portland Winterhawks for the Memorial Cup tournament of 1983 and helped the 'Hawks capture the Canadian Major Junior hockey title.

Mike, who is single, spent the summer in Calgary and was a member of the Flames' Slo-Pitch team.

Wilson

To many, the Flames' deal with Chicago on Nov. 8, 1982 that brought Carey Wilson to Calgary seemed insignificant.

However, in 1984-85 the NHL found out who Carey Wilson was. For much of the season he was in the running for the league's rookie-of-the year honors that ultimately went to celebrated rookie Mario Lemieux.

It was Wilson who was the league's most talked about rookie during the first two months of the campaign. He started the season by scoring points in his first eight games (4 goals-11 assists), tying a club record.

He went on to have a strong first half, scoring 11 goals and adding 32 assists. Of his first 35 games, he failed to pick up a point in but seven of those contests.

Wilson finished the season with 24 goals and 48 assists for 72 points. He placed fifth in the balloting for the Calder Trophy.

Wilson was the NHL's Rookie Player-of-the Month for October. Along the way, he established Flame records for rookie scoring. He broke Tom Lysiak's record for most points (64, 1973-74) and assists (45, 1973-74) by a Flame rookie.

Carey, who is single, spent the summer at home in Winnipeg.

NHL's Look For 1985-86

The National Hockey League is in its 69th regular season with Conference and Division alignment and an unbalanced schedule that will focus attention upon some of the greatest rivalries in sport.

UNBALANCED SCHEDULE

Each of the 21 teams will play an 80-game schedule, with those teams in the Smythe, Patrick and Adams Divisions having eight games (four home, four away) against each of their Divisional opponents, plus three games against each of the remaining 16 teams in the League. In the case of the three games against the remaining clubs, teams will play two home, one away or vice-versa, alternating the extra home game each year.

The six clubs in the Patrick Division — New Jersey, New York Islanders, New York Rangers, Philadelphia, Pittsburgh and Washington — will play each other seven times with three games against each of the remaining 15 teams. The home ice differential will be alternated each season.

STANLEY CUP PLAYOFFS FORMAT

At the conclusion of the regular schedule, the top four finishers in each of the Divisions will qualify for the Stanley Cup playoffs.

The preliminary round features divisional playoffs that will have the first place club oppose the fourth place team and second versus third in a best-of-five series. The winners of each series will advance to a best-of-seven Divisional Final series, with the team with the highest standing during the regular season receiving home-ice advantage.

The four divisional winners will meet in a best-of-seven Conference Championship. It will be the Smythe

Division versus the Norris Division for the Campbell Conference championship, while the Patrick Division will oppose the Adams Division winner for the Prince of Wales Conference title. The Conference champions will meet in a best-of-seven final series for the Stanley Cup.

In the Conference championships, the home ice advantage will be gained by the team which secured more points during the regular season.

For Stanley Cup play, home ice advantage will go to the team which secured more points during the regular season than its opponent. The final series will revert back to a 2-2-1-1-1 format.

Panasonic OmniMovie VHS

combining the best features of VHS cameras and recorders in one compact unit . . .

MODEL NO.
PV-200-K

...and performance that lives up to the Panasonic name.

Standard VHS Cassettes

One great advantage of OmniMovie over other camcorder formats is that it uses standard-size VHS cassettes, giving you the utmost in compatibility and versatility. You can record up to two hours on one T-120 cassette. And play it back on any VHS machine. So there's no need to worry about cassette adaptors. OmniMovie is the perfect companion for your home deck! Shoot with OmniMovie, then play the tapes that night on your living room VCR. And since it uses standard VHS cassettes, you can even watch full length rented movies!

Lightweight

OmniMovie, complete with battery, weighs only 7.7 lbs.! So it's much lighter than most "lightweight" two-piece systems. And since it's just one unit, it's much easier to control. For portability, OmniMovie can't be beat. Just grab the convenient carrying handle, and you've got everything you need to shoot your own videos.

Instant Playback

OmniMovie features full playback capability that lets you instantly view what you've just shot. You can playback a recording through the Electronic Viewfinder while you're out shooting, to make sure you've captured what you want on tape. When you return home, you can play the tape in full color through any color TV set.
